

Webcast #6

“Using Acceptable Etiquette When Interacting with People with Disabilities”

Synopsis: Webcast #6 is designed to help managers and supervisors use acceptable etiquette when interacting with people with disabilities. This webcast will also discuss proper terminology when speaking to or writing about a person with a disability.

Webcast #6: To view this webcast go to: <https://inside.fws.gov/go/post/R1-Diversity-and-Civil-Rights> Click on the “Webcasts & Training” link and then select “Webcast #6”. The presentation will open and immediately begin. To advance through the webcast from screen to screen, click on the directional icon in the Powerpoint toolbar located at the bottom of each screen.

Quiz: To receive one hour of DIVERSITY-related credit, managers and supervisors must complete the ten question (true/false) quiz with a minimum score of 70%. The last page of the quiz contains your test results. In order to receive one hour of credit for completing this webcast, your results page must be faxed to DCR at 503-231-2322 or sent electronically via emailed to: FW1_DCR@fws.gov. Note: Quiz runs best in Adobe Reader 9.0 or later.

Submitting Questions: During the creation of this webcast every attempt was made to address possible questions. If, after viewing this presentation, you have unanswered questions regarding acceptable etiquette when interacting with people with disabilities, email Angela Butsch at FW1_DCR@fws.gov or telephone 503-231-2260.

Webcast Survey Form: The purpose of this survey is to provide DCR with feedback about this webcast. We appreciate your honest appraisal and welcome any additional comments that you wish to make. This information will help us to meet your future needs. Please return the survey form to DCR either by fax at 503-231-2322, or by electronic pdf file emailed to: FW1_DCR@fws.gov.
